WOMEN'S RESOURCE DIRECTORY

Magazines

1. Bitch Magazine http://www.bitchmagazine.org/
   Description: B-Word Worldwide, doing business as Bitch Media, is the nonprofit organization best known for publishing the magazine Bitch: Feminist Response to Pop Culture. Bitch Media's mission is to provide and encourage an empowered, feminist response to mainstream media and popular culture.
2. Bust Magazine http://www.bust.com/
   Description: With an attitude that is fierce, funny, and proud to be female, BUST provides an uncensored view on the female experience. BUST tells the truth about women's lives and presents a female perspective on pop culture. BUSTing stereotypes about women since 1993.
3. Ms. Magazine http://www.msmagazine.com/
   Description: The magazine's time-honored traditions-an emphasis on in-depth investigative reporting and feminist political analysis, the Ms. Women of the Year Awards, and the renowned "No Comment" section-have been supplemented with discussion of such subjects as environmental feminism, women's work styles, and the politics of emerging technologies, bringing a new generation of writers and readers together to create the feminism of the future.
4. Colorlines http://www.colorlines.com/
   Description: ColorLines has been building a home for journalism in service to racial justice since 1998. Our multiracial team of writers, producers and photographers cover stories from the perspective of community, rather than through the lens of power brokers. We consider racism a structural problem that demands structural, rather than solely person solutions.
5. Bamboo Girl http://bamboogirl.com/index.html
   Description: Challenging racism, sexism, & homophobia from the Filipina/Asian Pacific Islander (API)/Asian mutt feminist point of view since 1995. Because life isn't only Black & White. There's more to life than straight white male patriarchy. And there are many stories to tell. Mine & others'. Our collective voice can create new truths.

All Descriptions Were Taken From the Websites Listed